5 THE TRUSTEES

- 5.1 The Trustees as charity trustees have control of the Charity and its property and funds.

- 5.2 Subsequent Trustees are:

- 5.2.1 elected by the Members; or

- 5.2.2 co-opted by the Trustees under Article 5.10, and no person, including a retiring Trustee, shall be appointed as a Trustee unless he or she has first been approved for appointment by the Nominations Committee in accordance with such regulations or terms of reference as the Trustees shall from time to time provide for the purpose.

- 5.3 The Trustees, when complete, shall consist of at least seven persons but (unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution) there shall be no maximum number of Trustees that may be appointed. If any Trustee is a corporate body it must act through a named representative whose contact details are notified to the Trustees and there must be at least one individual Trustee.

- 5.4 A Trustee may not act as a Trustee unless he or she:

- 5.4.1 supports the Objects;

- 5.4.2 is a Member;
 - 5.4.3 is over the age of 18; and
 - 5.4.4 has signed a written declaration of willingness to act as a Member and as a charity trustee of the Charity.
- 5.5 Subject to Articles 5.6 and 5.8, a Trustee appointed by the Members shall hold office for a term of up to three years from the date of his or her appointment.
- 5.6 One third (or the number nearest one third) of the Trustees must retire each year, those longest in office retiring first and the choice between any of equal service being made by drawing lots.
- 5.7 Subject to Articles 5.2 and 5.8, a retiring Trustee who is eligible under Article 5.4 may be reappointed.
- 5.8 A Trustee may serve a maximum of three terms, of up to three years per term. A Trustee who has completed three continuous terms of service as a Trustee will not be eligible to be re-appointed as a Trustee until one year after his retirement. For the avoidance of doubt, this maximum term includes any term in office of a Trustee prior to the adoption of these Articles.
- 5.9 A Trustee's term of office as such automatically terminates if:
- 5.9.1 he or she dies;
 - 5.9.2 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Charity stating that he or she has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Trustee and may remain so for three months;
 - 5.9.3 he or she is disqualified under the Charities Act from acting as a charity trustee;
 - 5.9.4 he or she is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the Trustees and is asked by a majority of the other Trustees to resign; or
 - 5.9.5 he or she resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least two Trustees will remain in office); or

5.9.6 he or she is removed by the Members at a general meeting called on special notice under the Companies Act, after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views.

5.10 Subject to Article 5.2, the Trustees may at any time co-opt any individual who is eligible under Article 5.4 as a Trustee to fill a vacancy in their number or as an additional Trustee, but a co-opted Trustee holds office only for the period of one year or the period until the next general meeting, whichever is shorter.

5.11 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

6 TRUSTEES' PROCEEDINGS

6.1 The Trustees must hold at least four meetings each year.

6.2 The Chair may at any time, and two Trustees jointly may at any time, call a meeting of the Trustees.

6.3 Notice of every meeting shall be sent to each Trustee (other than those for the time being not in the United Kingdom), specifying the place, day and hour of the meeting and the business to be discussed.

6.4 A quorum at a meeting of the Trustees is at least three or one third of the Trustees (if greater), excluding any Conflicted Trustee who has not been authorised to participate in discussions or a vote under Article 8.5.

6.5 A meeting of the Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants but at least one meeting in each year must be held in person.

6.6 The Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting.

6.7 The Trustees shall appoint a Chair by way of secret ballot of the Trustees, which shall be arranged by the Secretary or some other person chosen by the Trustees for this purpose. The Chair shall be appointed for a period of 1 year.

- 6.8 Any issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting, but a resolution in writing or in electronic form agreed by all of the Trustees, or a committee of them, entitled to receive notice of a meeting and to vote upon the resolution (other than any Conflicted Trustee who has not been authorised to participate in discussions or vote under Article 8.5) is as valid and effectual as a resolution passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided that:
- 6.8.1 a copy of the resolution is sent or submitted to all the Trustees eligible to vote; and
 - 6.8.2 a simple majority of the Trustees have signified their agreement to the resolution in an authenticated document or documents which are received at the Charity's registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.
- 6.9 A resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form, to each of which one or more Trustees has signified their agreement.
- 6.10 Every Trustee has one vote on each issue but, in case of equality of votes, the person appointed under Article 6.6 to preside at the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- 6.11 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

7 TRUSTEES' POWERS

The Trustees have the following powers in the administration of the Charity in their capacity as Trustees:

- 7.1 to appoint (and remove) any person (who may be a Trustee) to act as Secretary in accordance with the Companies Act;
- 7.2 to appoint a Treasurer and other honorary officers from among their number and, subject to Article 6.7, a Chair;
- 7.3 to invite observers to attend meetings of the Trustees, and to pay their reasonable expenses out of the Charity's funds. For the avoidance of doubt, such observers are not Trustees and shall not count towards the quorum for a meeting, shall not have any power to vote on a matter and shall leave the meeting when the Trustees vote on a matter;

- 7.4 to delegate any of their functions to committees consisting of two or more individuals appointed by them. At least one member of every committee must be a Trustee and all proceedings of committees must be reported promptly to the Trustees;
- 7.5 to delegate to any managing director or any director holding any other executive office such of their functions as they consider desirable and appropriate to be exercised by him. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Trustees may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered;
- 7.6 to make standing orders consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern proceedings at general meetings;
- 7.7 to make rules consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern their proceedings and proceedings of committees;
- 7.8 to make regulations consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern the administration of the Charity and the use of its seal (if any);
- 7.9 to establish procedures to assist the resolution of disputes or differences within the Charity; and
- 7.10 to exercise in their capacity as Trustees any powers of the Charity which are not reserved to the Members.

8 BENEFITS AND CONFLICTS

- 8.1 The property and funds of the Charity must be used only for promoting the Objects and do not belong to the Members but:

- 8.1.1 Members who are not Trustees or Connected Persons may be employed by or enter into contracts with the Charity and receive reasonable payment for goods or services supplied and for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in these Articles prevents a Member (or their employer, as the case may be) being reimbursed from the property and funds of the Charity for any reasonable costs incurred by that Member in assisting the Charity to pursue its objects, including by providing services and/or advice to a beneficiary of the Charity.

Subject to compliance with Article 8.4:

- 8.1.2 Members, Trustees and Connected Persons may be paid interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Charity;
 - 8.1.3 Members, Trustees and Connected Persons may be paid a reasonable rent or hiring fee for property let or hired to the Charity; and
 - 8.1.4 Individual Members, Trustees and Connected Persons may receive charitable benefits on the same terms as any other members of the beneficial class.

- 8.2.1 as mentioned in Articles 8.1 or 8.3;

 - 8.2.6 in exceptional cases, other payments or benefits (but only with the written consent of the Commission in advance and subject, where required by the Companies Act, to the approval or affirmation of the Members).

- 8.3 No Trustee or Connected Person may be employed by the Charity except in accordance with Article 8.2.6, but any Trustee or Connected Person may enter into a written contract with the Charity, as permitted by the Charities Act (stating the maximum benefit to be paid), to supply goods or services in return for a payment or other material benefit but only if:
- 8.3.1 the goods or services are actually required by the Charity, and the Trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the Charity to enter into such a contract;
 - 8.3.2 the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and is set in accordance with the procedure in Article 8.4; and
 - 8.3.3 less than one half of the Trustees are subject to such a contract in any financial year.
- 8.4 Subject to Clause 8.5, any Trustee who becomes a Conflicted Trustee in relation to any matter must:

 - 8.4.3 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and
 - 8.4.4 be absent during the vote and have no vote on the matter.
- 8.5 When any Trustee is a Conflicted Trustee, the Trustees who are not Conflicted Trustees, if they form a quorum without counting the Conflicted Trustee and are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to do so, may by resolution passed in the absence of the Conflicted Trustee authorise the Conflicted Trustee, notwithstanding any conflict of interest or duty which has arisen or may arise for the Conflicted Trustee, to:
- 8.5.1 continue to participate in discussions leading to the making of a decision and to vote; or

- 8.5.2 disclose to a third party information confidential to the Charity; or
 - 8.5.3 take any other action not otherwise authorised which does not involve the receipt by the Conflicted Trustee or a Connected Person of any payment or material benefit from the Charity; or
 - 8.5.4 refrain from taking any step required to remove the conflict.
- 8.6 This provision may be amended by special resolution but, where the result would be to authorise a benefit to a Trustee, Member or Connected Person which was not previously authorised under the Articles, only with the prior written consent of the Commission.
- 8.7 A Conflicted Trustee who obtains (other than through his position as Trustee) information that is confidential to a third party, shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Charity if he or she declares the conflict in accordance with Article 8.4 and then withholds such confidential information from the Charity.

9 RECORDS AND ACCOUNTS

- 9.1 The Trustees must comply with the requirements of the Companies Act and of the Charities Act as to keeping records, the audit or independent examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies and the Commission of information required by law including:

10.3 The form and procedure for applying for Membership is to be prescribed by the Trustees.

10.4 Membership is not transferable.

10.5 Membership is terminated if the Member concerned:

10.5.1 gives written notice of resignation to the Charity;
